Friday day Monday morning—and everybody's at it.

Chas. H. Howard and family are spending a week at Bailey's Island.

Mrs. Agnes L. Morton spent a few days with relatives in Portland last week.

N. Dayton Bolster and family will go on Tuesday to occupy a cottage at Peak's Island for a week.

Miss Doris Culbert is visiting in Danville, and will spend a few days in Poland Spring and Portland.

Hayling in general is a little late, but grass is still growing, the farmers congratulate themselves.

Mrs. Elmer W. Burbank of Gorham, N. H., formerly of South Paris, visited friends in town last week.

There will be a dance Friday night at Grange Hall, with music by Shaw's Orchestra. Dancing at 8:15 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Herrick went Saturday to Bailey's Island, where they have engaged a cottage for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Murphy spent a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Walter E. Penley, at Greenwood, last week.

Mrs. Francis A. Johnson and daughter, Mrs. John A. Johnson, are visiting in Portland.

Miss Marion Walker, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Doris Culbert, returned to her home in Woodford Wednesday.

Shaw's Orchestra, four pieces, furnished music for H. N. Bragdon's picture show and dance at Lovell village Thursday evening.

Rev. C. L. Spear of the Methodist church exchanged pulpits Sunday morning with Rev. R. J. Bruce of the Norway Congregational church.

Clarence Winslow and Albert Bonney have gone to Lake Maranacook, where they will be employed at table work in a summer hotel for the season.

Hamlin Lodge, K. of P., will work the rank of Knight on two candidates next Friday evening, July 17. Rehearsal of rank team Wednesday evening, July 15.

Mrs. Lydia S. Hammond went on Thursday to visit her daughter and family at Kennebunk, and will go from there to visit her sister in Melrose, Mass.

J. F. Howland and family arrived at Mount View Farm the first of last week from Boston. Mr. Howland has suffered two shocks recently and is quite ill.

Misses Lulu Davis, Marie Newton, Marion Tyler, and Beatrice Andrews of North Paris went Saturday to attend the summer school at Gorham Normal School.

Two hundred and fifty folding opera chairs have been ordered for New Hall or Savoy Theatre, to take the place of the settees which have done service there for so many years.

Miss Flora Murch is planning to attend the Ocean Park Missionary Conference at Ocean Park, Maine, July 23-31, as a delegate from the four churches of South Paris.

Miss Beattie Haggitt is taking her vacation from the store of Thomas S. May at Norway, and she and her sister, Miss Mary Haggitt, are visiting their sister, Mrs. G. A. Cutting, in Hartford, Ct.

Mrs. Clifton McAllister and young son of Auburn, and Miss Charlotte Giles, who is on her vacation from her work in Portland, are spending some time with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Giles.

owing principally to the threatening appearance of the weather on that day, not a large number attended the picnic of the Congregational Sunday School at Gibson's Grove Thursday, but those who did go had an enjoyable day.

The Democrat failed to report last week that Morton V. Bolster and Harold T. Briggs won the tennis championship of the Norway Baptist Sunday School.

Rev. H. R. Whitcomb, Baptist state Sunday school missionary, will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Among the houses which are receiving new coats of paint are those of F. A. Heider and High Street, J. H. Bean on Gothic Street, H. B. Holden on Maple Street, the tenement house of Harry D. Cole on Pine Street, and the house of Mrs. Lucy Pratt on Hill Street.

Mrs. N. D. Bolster, Morton V. Bolster, Mrs. N. D. Bolster, Mrs. Arthur E. Forbes and Mrs. N. G. Elder were at Lewiston Wednesday to see Miss Lila Gilbert of Canton, who is in the Central Maine General Hospital and has undergone a serious operation, but is doing well.

On account of so much sickness among the pupils of the Norway Congregational Sunday School has been deferred until about the third week in August. Twenty or more of the children of the school have whooping cough, which is just now so prevalent here as almost to amount to an epidemic.

Advertised letters and cards in South Paris post office July 13, 1914:

Miss Clara Hall, Mrs. Elmer W. Burbank, Carl W. Temple, Mrs. L. H. Lefebvre, Carl W. Temple, Mrs. L. H. Lefebvre, Carl W. Temple, Mrs. L. H. Lefebvre, Carl W. Temple.

S. F. DAVIS, P. M.

W. K. Clifford is still carrying his left arm in a sling in consequence of an injury received a half year or two ago. It is aching and sore, but he is doing well.

Quite a job of grading is being done on the lawn at the summer home of Chas. E. Elder on Main Street. Other material improvements about the place and its surroundings are concrete walks and steps, and the clearing, grading and seeding of the lot on the opposite side of the street, where the Sewall Parker house was burned, which lot was purchased by Mr. Elder.

A pleasant party of an even dozen enjoyed the field day outing of the Seneca Club on Wednesday. They took the forenoon train for Lewiston, and the 11 o'clock car from there to New Meadows Inn, where they had a shore dinner. Later they went into Portland on the trolley line, and thence home by the evening train. In the party were Mrs. Littlefield, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Eastman, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Agnes Morton, Mrs. Alton C. Wheeler, Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. Smiley, Mrs. Goldsmith, Miss Grace Thayer, Miss Walker.

Rev. H. S. Pinkham, formerly of South Paris, died in Lowell, Mass., Monday of last week, of tuberculosis. Mr. Pinkham was pastor of the South Paris Baptist church for a year and a half some ten or twelve years since. After leaving South Paris he held pastorates in Somerville, Mass., and Washington, D. C., and had been for about a year previous to his death pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lowell. He was a brilliant speaker and a man of great energy and devotion to his chosen work. He was 38 years of age, and leaves a widow and one son.

Herman Record had an accident Wednesday morning with much less serious consequences than might have been expected. As he was driving into the village, accompanied by his young son, on Clark Hill near the house of Franklin Maxim the car skidded on the greasy surface of the road, and finally turned partly around and turned squarely up the side of the hill. Mr. Record was thrown clear, but the boy was under the car. His father got him out as soon as possible, and to his surprise found that the boy was not seriously hurt. The wind shield was smashed, mud guards bent out of shape, and other comparatively slight damage done to the car, but nothing extensive.
